

What should I already know?

- Recognise that loving others is important in lots of communities.
- Recognise that there are special places where people go to worship, and talk about what people do there.
- Identify objects used in worship in two religions and give a simple account of how they are used and mean.
- Think, talk and ask questions about whether Jesus' 'good news' is only good news for Christians, or if there are things for anyone to learn about how to live.

5 Pillars of Islam

Shahadah - the Muslim creed / statement of faith

Salah - prayer - Muslims must pray five times a day

Zakat - giving to those in need

Sawm - fasting during Ramadan

Hajj - making the pilgrimage to the holy city of Makkah (Mecca)

5 K's of Sikhism

Kara, Kachera, Kirpan, Khalsa, Kesh and Kanga.

Christian Beatitudes

Loving God

- Loving other people

- Being gentle and kind

- Being fair, and working to make sure others are treated justly

- Forgiving when people hurt and upset us

- Being good peacemakers-helping people and nations make friends

- Standing up for what is right

(based on the Beatitudes: Matthew 5:3-15)

Values

Challenge	Why is making the world a better place challenging?
Commit	How do people show commitment to the rules of their religion?
Conquer	How do different religions conquer bad things?
Celebrate	How do religions celebrate the world being a better place?

Key facts and figures

Founder: Abraham

Sacred Text: Torah

Place of origin: Jerusalem (Zion)

Sacred Building: Synagogue

Holy place: Jerusalem

Western Wall

Originated: 18th Century BCE

Technical vocabulary Mat

Sin	An act against religious law
beliefs	Traditional religious views
Tzedek,	meaning righteousness, fairness, or justice,
tikkun olam	Hebrew words are typically translated as "repair the world," or "mend the world,"
Commandments	Religious and moral laws given to Moses by God on Mount Sinai
Golden rule	Unwritten rule over many religions to show kindness to others

Humanist unwritten rules

Experience: things you have done and learned from.

Reason:
thinking, understanding and making judgements.

Empathy:
understanding and sharing the feelings of others.

Respect for Others:
understanding that others may think differently to you and accepting everyone's views are equally important.