Who were the Anglo Saxons and where did they come from?				Picts	Tribes originally from Scotland who were 'foul' and had a 'lust for blood'.
They were a mix of tribes from Germany, Denmark and the Netherlands. The three biggest were the Angles, the Saxons and the Jutes. The land they settled in was 'Angle-land', or England. Why did the Anglo-Saxons come to Britain? Britain needed help so King Vortigern invited some Anglo-Saxons (Hengest and Horsa) to Britain to help defeat the Picts and Scots. However, when they did, they decided to invade and settle in Britain themselves. Some Anglo-Saxons were warriors who enjoyed fighting. They thought the Britons were weak and easy to beat without the Romans around. Many Anglo-Saxons came peacefully, to find land to farm. Their homelands in Scandinavia often flooded so it was tough to grow enough food back there. Whole families set sail across the sea to live in Britain. They brought tools, weapons and farm animals with them and built will be any homes.				Saxons	German-Dutch tribes who settled in Britain from around 450AD.
