

What should I already know?

- The emergency services are people who help us
- We use transport to travel from A to B

The roles of the emergency services

- Put out fires and carry out search and rescue
- Help people who are hurt or ill
- Help stop crime and road safety

The emergency services

Technical vocabulary

999	The number used to contact any of the emergency services.
Paramedic	People who come to medical emergencies.
Ambulance	A vehicle made to carry sick or injured people, often to hospital.
Emergency services	Public organisations whose job is to take quick action in emergencies
Transport	How people and goods move from one place to another.

Different types of transport

Car

Bus

Boat

Train

Bike

Scooter

Van

Aeroplane

Maps

Maps show us where things are. They show us distances and help us think which mode of transport we may need.

