St White's Primary School Sports Premium Plan: 2020 - 2021

The subject Action Plan emphasises the following developments for the next school year 2020 – 21:

- Continuing focused development of staff confidence and utilising the use of assessment in PE so that staff have a better understanding of the requirements of physical education.
- Ensure that all pupils in KS2 take part in house matches over the course of the year.
- Develop the sportsmanship curriculum throughout the school.
- Identify both the less physically active and the more able children and make sure their varying needs are catered for.
- Develop staff confidence and knowledge through sport specific CPD from recognised high level coaches.
- Provide staff with the appropriate equipment and kit to help show PE is a high priority of the school and is valued by all staff.
- Retain the Gold School Games Award.
- Provide more opportunity for pupils to attend live sporting events to help raise the profile of sport and children's aspirations.
- Create more local club and community links to provide a pathway into grassroots sport for children of all ages.
